

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30, 1881

A. London Snowden, Esq.

Supt. U. S. Mint

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I will thank you to inform this office by telegraph on receipt hereof the cost of the small size of the proposed Garfield Medal.

There is an association here who desire to procure about forty of these medals with simply the head of the late President Garfield on one side and a wreath on the other, and they desire to know the probable cost thereof to morrow.

Very respectfully
Horatio Burdond
Director.
